FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Readers,

It gives me immense joy to see our students take charge as young journalists, editors and storytellers through 'The Litera Times'.

This newsletter is more than just a record of events — it is a reflection of the vibrant spirit of Litera Valley School. From sports fields to inter-school podiums, from CBSE clusters to celebrations within our campus, it captures the journey of our learners.

At Litera Valley, we constantly strive to nurture creativity, leadership and 21st-century skills that will empower our students to be future-ready and open doors to meaningful, career-oriented opportunities.

I invite all grandparents, parents, teachers and students to not only stay connected with our happenings and achievements, but also to take a moment to appreciate and encourage the hard work, passion and commitment of our young editorial team. Behind every article and every photograph lies hours of effort, teamwork and a desire to do their best. Your words of appreciation will be their greatest motivation to aim higher.

Keep reading, keep leading!

Warm regards,

Desmond Jude D'Monte

LITFEST 9

A Rendezvous of Talent and Creativity

The corridors of Litera Valley School came alive with excitement, creativity, and a healthy competitive spirit as LitFest 9 was held on 31 July and 1 August. With the theme “Rural Rendezvous,” this year’s festival brought together 25 schools for two days of performances, competitions, ideas, and unforgettable experiences.

The festival offered something for every kind of talent. The stage came alive with the energy of Utsav (Dance), the harmony of Sargam (Choir), the classical charm of Raag, and the electrifying performances of Rockathon (Band). Students also got the opportunity to express their creativity through Sandesh (Poster Making), Charcoal Painting, and Doodle Art.

For those who enjoyed thinking on their feet, Off the Cuff (Extempore) tested spontaneity and confidence, while Flipped (Debate) encouraged participants to put forward their arguments and look at issues from different perspectives. Spectrum (Quiz) challenged students with questions that tested both their knowledge and their ability to think quickly.

Technology and innovation were also an important part of the festival. Students showcased their digital creativity through Reel Making and We Web in the Web World (Website Making). The Cuisine Contest, Cooking Without Fire, added a fun and creative twist, with participants turning simple ingredients into imaginative dishes without using a flame.

After two days of enthusiastic participation and close competition, Litera Valley School emerged as the Champion of LitFest 9, while Notre Dame Academy secured the Runner-Up position. The victory was a proud moment for the school and a reflection of the hard work and enthusiasm of its students.

With its vibrant performances, thoughtful debates, creative artwork, and countless moments of excitement, LitFest 9 truly lived up to its theme. Rural Rendezvous was not just about competitions. It was about bringing students together, celebrating different forms of talent, and creating memories that will stay with them long after the festival ended.

SPIC MACAY Ushers in a Morning of Music, Calm & Culture

— Where Tradition Resonates, Souls Connect —

On 24th July 2026, Litera Valley School, Patna paused the rush of exam preparations to immerse its campus in the serenity of Indian Classical Music by hosting a special SPIC MACAY session. The institution had the distinct honour of welcoming internationally acclaimed virtuoso Padma Shri Pandit Salil Vishwa Mohan Bhatt, who has showcased Indian heritage on global platforms like the Unithee Nations in Geneva.

Students and faculty sat in rapt silence as Pandit ji brought the Satvik Veena to life with the soulful, spiritual notes of Raag Parmeshwari, filling the hall with peace and devotion. He was accompanied by Mr. Kaushik Kanwar on the tabla, whose sharp rhythmic precision created an exhilarating musical dialogue.

The gathering was also graced by Mr. Manish Singh Thakur, Vice Chairperson of Bihar and Facilitator for SPIC MACAY Jharkhand, who shared that inusic is a universal language with Sa Re Ga Ma as its alphabets, allowing people to communicate instantly, as shown by the day's impromptu yet harmonious performance.

School leaders Principal Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte, Headmistress Ms. Sujata Bhadani, and Non-Academic Head Mr. Amitabh Choudhury felicitated the esteemed guests with deep gratitude.

The event concluded with an interactive Q&A session where curious students engaged directly artists, connecting intimately with their roots. The morning served as an enduring reminder that true is not simply taught, but deeply experienced.

Celebrating the Spirit of Freedom: Independence Day at Litera Valley School

Freedom Today, Responsibility Tomorrow

Freedom is the open window to the human spirit.” With the Tricolour soaring proudly and hearts filled with patriotism, Litera Valley School, Patna, celebrated the 80th Independence Day with great enthusiasm and national pride.

The celebrations began with a soulful rendition of Vande Mataram, setting the tone for a day dedicated to the spirit of freedom and unity. This was followed by the ceremonial flag hoisting by respected Principal, Mr. Desmond Jude D'Monte. As the National Anthem echoed across the school campus, students, teachers and staff stood together, united by a deep sense of pride in the nation.

Addressing the gathering, Principal Sir reminded the students that freedom comes not only with rights but also with responsibility. Encouraging them to become the torchbearers of a new India, he urged them to contribute towards building a Viksit Bharat through knowledge, character and responsible citizenship.

The cultural programme brought the celebrations to life. A melodious choir, energetic patriotic dances, heartfelt songs by teachers and students, inspiring speeches, poetry and vibrant cultural performances reflected the diversity and unity of India. The spirit of Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat resonated throughout the celebrations, turning the occasion into a meaningful tribute to the nation.

The event was graced by Headmistress Ms. Sujata Bhadani, along with teachers, students and members of the school staff.

As the celebrations drew to a close, everyone came together to take a pledge to serve the nation and uphold the values that freedom represents.

The day was not merely a celebration of India's independence, but a reminder of the responsibility that comes with it—a responsibility to learn, grow, contribute and build a better India.

CREATE FREELY, EXPRESS BOLDLY

— Tri-colour Craft Activity —

“With every colour, thread, and stroke, we create our own kind of freedom.”

The Pre-Primary Wing of Litera Valley School paid tribute to India's Independence Day by an intra-school tricolour activity. These tender learners competitively and enthusiastically participated in it and expressed their patriotism through the 3 major colours of the flag: Saffron, White and Green.

They created a vivid imagery of significance of courage, peace and prosperity.

The young minds practiced and developed motor skills, hand eye coordination and creative abilities. They prided themselves on being Indian citizens. This was a marvellous and wonderful activity for the tender hearts of LVS.

GRATITUDE IN LITTLE HANDS – THANK YOU CARD ACTIVITY

“Nurturing empathy and social responsibility through creativity.”

The Pre-Primary Wing of Litera Valley School enthusiastically organised a “Thank You Card” Craft Activity for the Senior KG students.

The purpose of this initiative was to help children express gratitude towards the people who support and serve us in our neighbourhood.

Through this creative activity, the young learners designed beautiful and colourful thank-you cards for community helpers such as doctors, teachers, police officers, firefighters, postmen, sanitation workers, and gardeners. Each card reflected the innocence of childhood and the sincerity of appreciation, as the tiny hands worked with great enthusiasm to craft heartfelt messages.

The activity not only nurtured the children's artistic skills and creativity but also instilled in them the values of empathy, respect, and social responsibility. The students learned the importance of appreciating those who make our lives easier.

The joy and excitement on the children's faces while presenting their cards made the event memorable. The Thank You Card Activity thus became a meaningful learning experience.

The Grand Celebration of Young Creativity

Talent Today, Brighter Tomorrows

The campus came alive with creativity, music, colour, and enthusiasm as students from various schools across Patna gathered for the Inter-School Flair. The vibrant event brought together young talents from Grades III to V, providing them with an exciting platform to showcase their creativity, confidence, and diverse abilities.

Students participated enthusiastically in a wide range of events, including Navras, Doodling, Painting, Singing, Choir, and Dance. Each competition reflected the imagination, dedication, and remarkable talent of the young participants. From colourful artistic creations and melodious performances to energetic dance presentations, the event was truly a celebration of youthful expression.

The Inter-School Flair also provided students with an opportunity to interact with participants from different schools, learn from one another, and experience the spirit of healthy competition. The enthusiasm displayed throughout the event made the occasion memorable for participants, teachers, and spectators alike.

Adding to the excitement of the occasion, Litera Valley School emerged as the Overall Winner of the event, while St. Karen's Secondary School was declared the Overall Runner-Up. The achievements reflected the exceptional talent, dedication, and team spirit displayed by the participating students.

With creativity taking centre stage and young talent shining brightly, the Inter-School Flair proved to be a wonderful platform for students to explore their potential and celebrate the joy of learning beyond the classroom.

PTM

GRADE VI-X & XII

Litera Valley School organised a PTM for grade VI-X & XII on 8th August Saturday, 2026. The parent-teacher meeting created a vibrant platform for open communication between teachers and guardians. Teachers shared insights on formative assessments, classroom engagement and the importance of balancing extracurricular activities with core studies. PT-1 marksheets were shown to the parents during the respective time; discussing the child's strengths and weaknesses.

The PTM aimed to bridge the gap between home and classroom while fostering a collaborative environment for student growth. The event saw an enthusiastic turnout, with parents eager to discuss academic progress and overall development.

Teachers provided personalized feedback, highlighting individual strengths and areas needing improvement. Parents appreciated the constructive guidance and proactive support offered by the faculty. Overall, the PTM strengthened the collaborative bond between home and school, ensuring a unified approach toward nurturing students' potential and guiding them gracefully toward academic success.

Beyond the Classroom: An Educational Expedition

Humanities Trip to Patna Zoo & Planetarium

Exploring Nature. Discovering the Universe.

The students of Grades XI and XII Humanities embarked on an enriching educational field trip to the Patna Zoo and Planetarium, combining the wonders of the natural world with the mysteries of the universe. Accompanied by their teachers, Mr. Bruce, Mr. Nayeem, Mr. Nivas, Mr. Sumit, and Ms. Rupali, the students set out from the school premises at approximately 7:40 a.m. and reached the zoo around 8:15 a.m.

The first destination gave students an opportunity to observe a diverse range of animals and birds, making the experience both engaging and educational. Walking through the zoo, students explored the richness of wildlife and gained a closer understanding of biodiversity and the fascinating variety of life found in the animal kingdom.

The group then proceeded to the planetarium, where the students eagerly attended the 11:00 a.m. 3D show, 'We are Stars'. The immersive presentation took them on an extraordinary journey through space and time, exploring the evolution of the universe, the formation of stars and planets, and the story of the Big Bang. The captivating visuals and scientific concepts made the experience both informative and memorable.

After an eventful day filled with exploration and learning, the students returned to the school premises and were dispersed according to the usual timings. The educational field trip proved to be a refreshing departure from conventional classroom learning, offering students a unique opportunity to experience nature and science firsthand—from the diversity of life on Earth to the vast expanse of the cosmos.

ART MEETS IDEAS,
CONVERSATIONS CREATE CHANGE.

“Just as if she were to be twilight now, a glorious epitome of a beauty set in the darkest hour of the murkiest night, telling the tales of a new dawn to the blossoms of tomorrow.”

Litera Valley School was recently privileged to have its students meet the famous author, Arundhati Roy.

The event unfolded at Arthshila on the 19th July 2026, where the multiple educational institutes within Patna gathered their ‘blossoms of tomorrow’ to have a one-on-one interaction with ‘remnant of a setting sun and an inspiration to the upcoming dawn’ that is ‘Arundhati Roy’.

During the event, the students were blessed with the opportunity to meet the author in person and have their copies of her books signed by her. The gathering proved not only resourceful but deeply enriching as the writer shared her understanding of the world from the fields of literature to the grounds of politics and up to the stature of the unuttered self-understanding with the young minds gathered about her.

Choosing Discipline Over Distraction

— A Pledge for a Stronger, Clearer, and Better Tomorrow —

On 7th August 2026, Litera Valley School had the honour of hosting Brahmakumari Sisters for a meaningful pledge ceremony under the Nasha Mukh Bharat Abhiyaan initiative (10 Crore Nasha Mukti Pratigya Mahaabhiyan).

The session focused on guiding students toward building mental strength and self-discipline. During the address, students were encouraged to stay free from all forms of intoxication—ranging from substance abuse like drugs and alcohol to modern digital habits like screen addiction, excessive mobile phone use, and social media obsession. The core message emphasized that true strength lies in maintaining a focused, healthy, and clear mind.

As part of the event, students took a collective pledge to make conscious, positive choices every day and stay dedicated to a balanced, addiction-free lifestyle.

The session served as a powerful reminder that small, daily choices lead to lasting personal growth. Litera Valley School remains committed to nurturing responsible, mindful, and healthy individuals.

Counselling Session at LVS

A Positive Mindset, A Brighter Tomorrow

Our school organized a counselling session for students on 11th August, 2026 in association with Indiannica Learning to empower our young learners by introducing them to healthy ways of dealing with everyday challenges and pressure. This session was conducted by Mr Saurabh Beniwal, an NLP practitioner, orator and motivator who shared his deep insights with our students.

He emphasized the importance of taking care of one's mental well-being, particularly during this phase of life when the everyday routine might feel repetitive and stringent at times. He actively engaged with the students in a cheerful manner and shared positive values which resonated with them.

This session shed light on topics such as workload management, exam induced anxiety, low self-esteem, insecurity, feeling of isolation and impatience. The students were enlightened on how healthy optimism shapes their thoughts, attitudes and approaches towards failures.

This session indubitably gave our students some food for thought and a much-needed reminder that having a positive mindset can make a significant difference in how they approach daily challenges.

Inspiring Young Creators: Graphic Design Workshop at Litera Valley School

On 28th July, Litera Valley School had the privilege of hosting an inspiring Design Workshop conducted by Mr. Avik Bhattacharya, a NIFT alumnus with experience working alongside renowned designers, along with Ms. Shreya.

The workshop introduced students to the fundamentals of graphic design, including colour theory, typography, composition, creativity, and visual communication. The interactive session helped students understand how simple ideas can be transformed into attractive and meaningful designs.

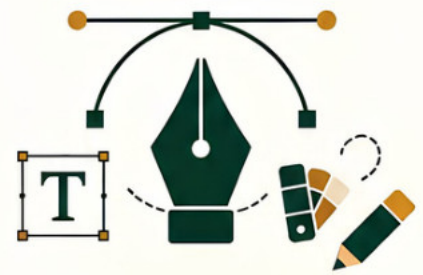

A graphic designing competition was also organised as part of the workshop. Participants were given several themes and were asked to choose one based on their interests. The winning team—Shreeya (Class XII), Abhinav (Class XI), Soumya (Class XII), and Ayush (Class XI)—showcased their creativity through themes such as makeup, food, and beverages.

The activity provided students with a platform to experiment, think creatively, and present their ideas in an engaging way. It also helped them develop visual thinking, communication, problem-solving, and digital creativity, skills that are increasingly valuable in today's world.

We sincerely thank Mr. Avik Bhattacharya and Ms. Shreya for their valuable guidance and for making the workshop such an enriching and memorable experience for the students.

Overall, the workshop was a wonderful blend of learning, creativity, and innovation, encouraging students to explore the exciting possibilities of graphic design.

PASCH Juku Camp 2026

— A Global Experience. A Lifetime of Learning. —

From 5th to 25th July 2026, Siddhi Vinayak of Litera Valley School, Patna, participated in a three-week fully sponsored scholarship programme in Germany under the PASCH Juku Camp 2026 at Benediktbeuern. The opportunity was awarded to Siddhi in recognition of his outstanding performance in the Goethe A1 Jugendlich German Language Examination 2025, under the guidance of German Teacher Mr. Aditya Pathak.

The programme offered a rich blend of language learning, cultural immersion, and international exchange. Siddhi was exposed to the German language, culture, education system, and everyday life during his stay in Germany. The camp also provided him with the opportunity to interact with students from diverse cultural backgrounds, thereby nurturing his confidence, independence, and a broader global outlook.

Such international programmes extend far beyond classroom learning, encouraging students to become more open-minded, adaptable, and culturally aware. Litera Valley School proudly celebrates Siddhi's remarkable achievement and dedication.
